guaranteed yield needs a larger batch
than the expectation suggests candidates needed for 20 hits 10^4
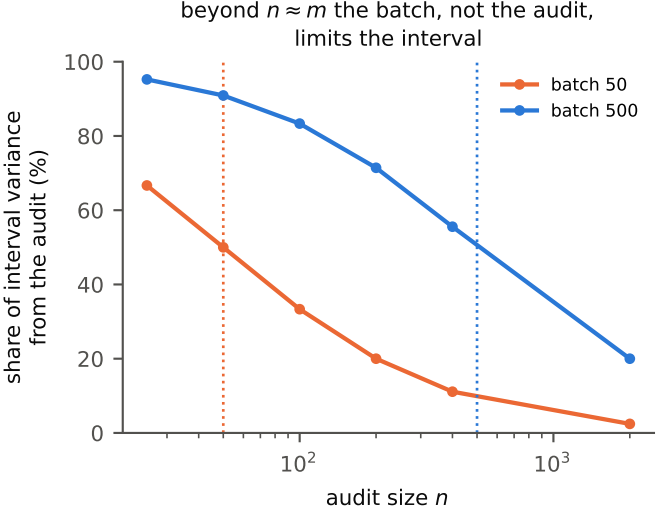
10^3
10^2
expectation, target/rate
audit $n = 49$
audit $n = 100$
audit $n = 384$
audit $n = 1000$
2%
5%
10%
25%
50%
in-class rate of the audited level set



beyond $n \approx m$ the batch, not the audit,
limits the interval
share of interval variance
from the audit (%)
100
80
60
40
20
0
batch 50
batch 500
10^2
10^3
audit size n